WORLD PREMIERE

Sydney Dance Company & Art Gallery of New South Wales, Australia

"We all respond strongly to images of the unclothed body because they address issues at the heart of who we are as humans – issues of love, desire, mortality, truth and power."

A unique collaboration between Sydney Dance Company and Art Gallery of New South Wales in association with Sydney Festival, this very special performance will take you on a journey into an intimate world of art and dance.

Witness dancers moving and breathing, their bodies and souls bared as they explore and respond to one of art's greatest subjects, the unclothed human body.

As part of the Art Gallery of New South Wales' major summer Sydney International Art Series exhibition Nude: art from the Tate collection which features more than 100 powerful artworks spanning two centuries, dancers respond to paintings, sculptures, photographs and works on paper by renowned artists such as Pablo Picasso, Lucian Freud, Henri Matisse and Louise Bourgeois.

With highly physical and emotionally charged choreography by Rafael Bonachela, the work examines the place of the nude in art, exploring beauty and desire, eroticism and tenderness as well as scandal.

The dance troupe is made up of Sydney Dance Company's associate dancers: Dave Mack, Fiona Jopp, Marlo Benjamin, Olivia Kingston, Zachary Lopez, Oliver Savariego and Izzac Carroll.

Rafael Bonachela was born in Barcelona where he began his early dance training before moving to London, and in 1992 joined the legendary Rambert Dance Company. He remained with Rambert as a dancer and Associate Choreographer until 2006 at which time he successfully set up the Bonachela Dance Company (BDC) to concentrate on the rapid rise of his choreographic career.

As a choreographer, Rafael has been commissioned to make works for Candoco, George Piper Dances, ITDANSA Danza Contemporanea de Cuba, Transitions Dance Company and Dance Works Rotterdam amongst others.

In 2008, he premiered his first full-length production 360° for Sydney Dance Company. Less than six months later, he was appointed Artistic Director making headlines around the dance world. Rafael's vision for the Company embraces a guiding principle that has seen the repertoire grow with the addition of commissioned dance works from Australian and visiting international guest
