VISUAL STORY

Sydney Festival
2026

WHAT IS A VISUAL STORY?

A Visual Story is a visual & written accessible guide to assist you with your visit.

Visual stories are used to prepare a person for and increase the predictability of a new environment or situation. This helps bring familiarity to a process and to reduce anxiety and stress.

This guide provides information on how to access the EXXY performance, and what to expect when you arrive and who to ask for assistance.

ABOUT SYDNEY FESTIVAL

EXXY is part of Sydney Festival 2026 program. Sydney Festival is a city wide celebration of culture and creativity.

From the streets to the beach, in stately theatres and in secret basements, it animates locations across Greater Sydney with a free and ticketed program of theatre, music, dance, visual art and live performance.

We welcome all visitors to Sydney Festival events and are committed to making the festival a safe and accessible space for everyone.

I can find out more accessibility information about Sydney Festival on the website:
www.sydneyfestival.org.au/accessibility

Making a return to Sydney Festival for the first time since 2018's powerful Beast, Dan Daw takes us back to where it all began: a working-class Aussie childhood and the start of his long journey towards becoming an internationally celebrated, proudly queer and disabled dance artist.

With raw honesty and scorching stagecraft, Daw lays bare the pressure of success and the fragile balancing act of self-belief, asking what it costs to stay at the top of your game when you've always been made to feel on the outside.

In EXXY (slang for "expensive"), Daw is joined by three extraordinary performers who move like him. Together, they echo, mirror, and multiply his presence, conjuring the tantalising possibility of blending in after a lifetime of standing out.

Visually provocative, emotionally fearless and threaded with humour, EXXY refuses to offer easy answers. Instead, it invites us into the contradictions Dan Daw embodies: bold yet insecure, triumphant yet uncertain, longing for community yet determined to be one of a kind

ABOUT THE VENUE

The performance of EXXY will be held at the Drama Theatre, Sydney Opera House.

Sydney Opera House is Sydney's premier performing arts centre with over 5,000 events per year.

Located at Circular Quay, Sydney Opera House is wheelchair accessible and has other accessible amenities, including accessible toilets.

I can find out more about venue accessibility here:

GETTING THERE

The performance is located at:

Bennelong Point, Sydney NSW 2000

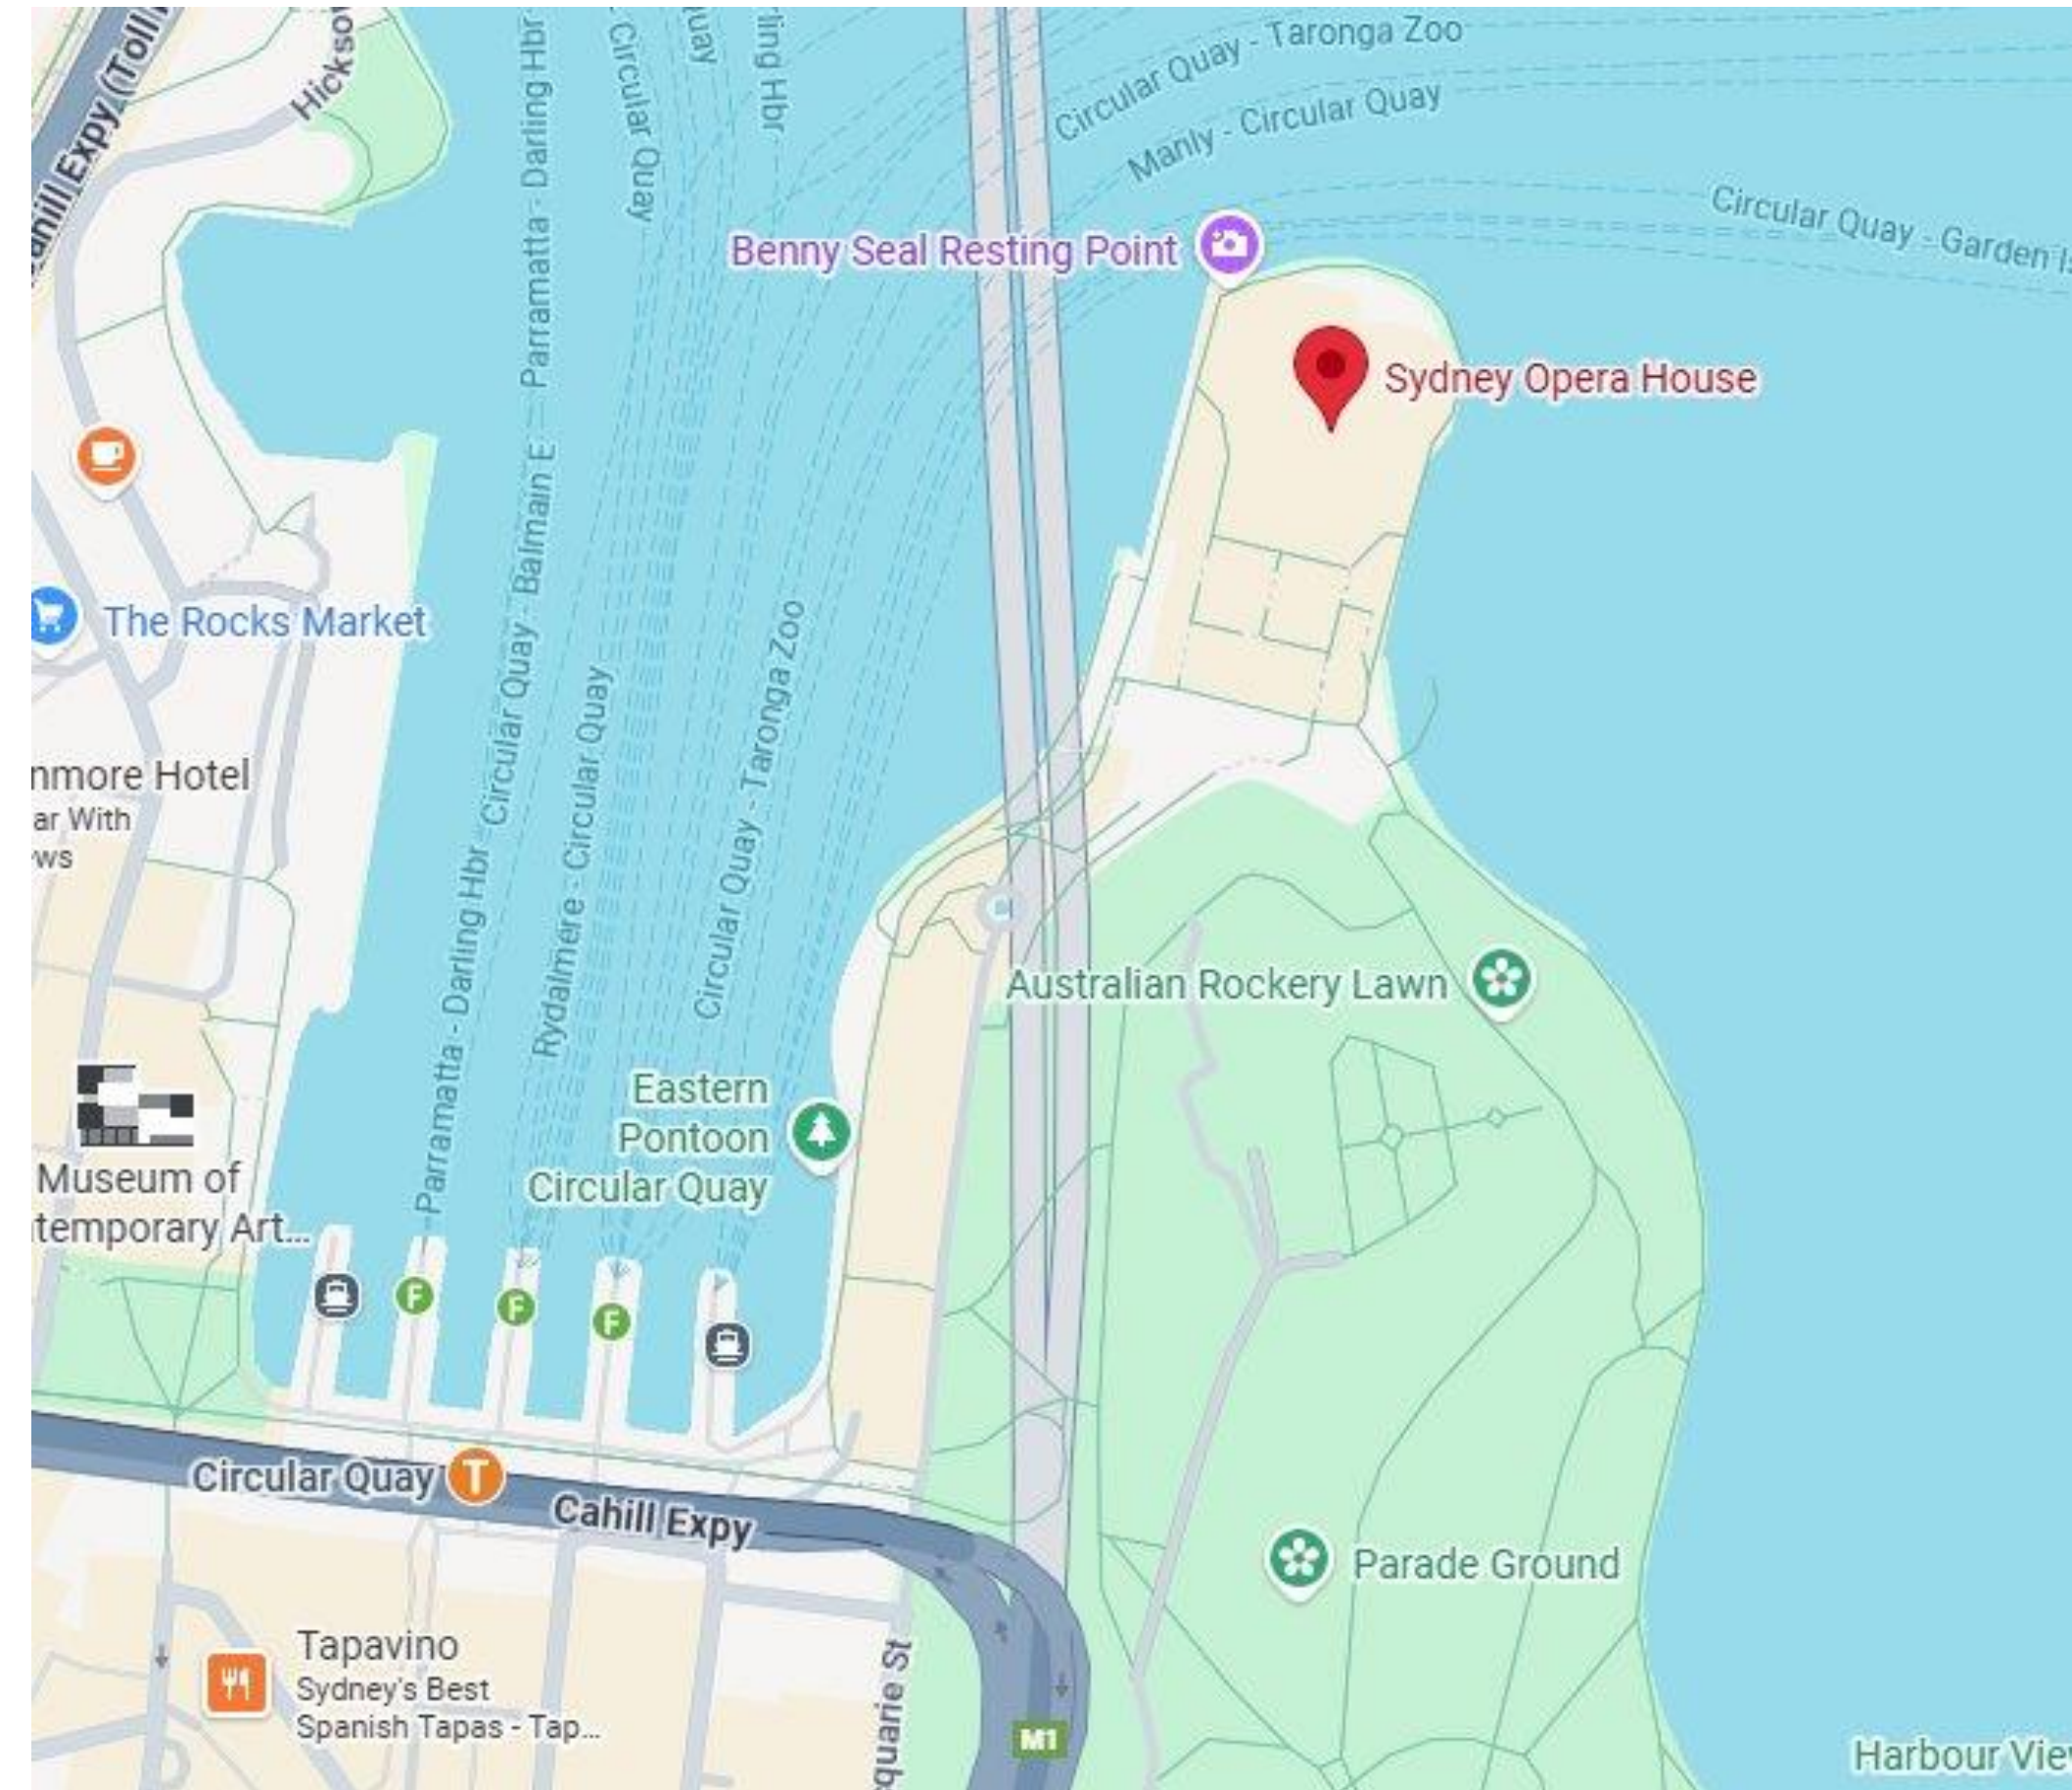

I can get to Sydney Opera House by train, bus, walking, ferry, taxi or by car.

Sydney Opera House is a 10-minute drive from Sydney CBD. I can park at the Wilson Parking's Sydney Opera House Car Park which is paid parking.

More information about parking is here:

<https://www.sydneyoperahouse.com/visit/getting-here/parking>

PUBLIC TRANSPORT/ WALKING/ TAXI OR RIDESHARE/CAR

BY PUBLIC TRANSPORT

The Sydney Opera House is a six-minute walk from Circular Quay, which is regularly served by public buses, trains and ferries to Circular Quay.

To get information about public transport around Sydney call 131 500 or visit the Transport Info website.

BY TAXI / RIDESHARE / CAR

Visitors and patrons arriving and leaving by taxis and private vehicles will be directed to the designated taxi rank on Macquarie Street, past the Wilson's Carpark entrance.

Visitors with accessibility requirements who wish to park on site will be directed to Wilson Parking as accessible parking is no longer available on the Concourse beneath the Monumental Steps.

A free wheelchair accessible Courtesy Bus is available to carry passengers to and from Circular Quay and the Opera House doors for matinee and evening performances.

CHECK IN/ TICKETING

I will need a ticket to see the show. If I haven't got a ticket, when I arrive, I can go to the Box Office to get a ticket. I will need to wait in a line.

Before the show starts, I might need to wait in the foyer. This is where I can relax with my family or friends until the performance starts.

I can enter the theater doors approximately 10-15 minutes prior to the show starting.

FINDING MY SEAT

My ticket will have the door number I need to enter through. An usher will check my tickets and tell me where the door is. Then I can enter the theatre.

Inside the theatre there are orange seats and a blue carpet floor. There is tiered seating.

An usher will help me find the seat that matches my ticket.

I can find a seating map online

Here (Drama Theatre).

BEFORE THE PERFORMANCE STARTS

When the show starts the lights will turn down to make the theatre darker, but it will not go completely dark.

This is now the time I can sit quietly to listen and watch the performance. If I need to talk to my friends or family during the show I can whisper.

I will be seeing a theatre show, not a movie. There will be real people on stage called performers. They might play music, sing, dance or tell me a story. They might wear costumes or make-up. This helps them to tell the story.

WHAT TO EXPECT DURING THE PERFORMANCE

The performance takes about 1 hour and 30 minutes

Some things I will see and hear during the performance are:

- Smoke and haze effects
- Dancing

There is no lock out period so if I arrive late, I can enter whenever an usher is free to guide me to my seat safely.

END OF THE PERFORMANCE

When the show is finished, people will clap their hands. This is to thank the performers. I can clap along if I want to, if it is too loud, I can use my noise cancelling headphones.

When the performance is finished, the lights will turn on and I can exit the theatre at one of the open doors, an usher will be there to help guide the way.

TOILETS

I can find accessible toilets inside the venue; they will be clearly marked with a red sign on the outside.

The staff at the Sydney Opera House can help me find the toilets if I need help.

I should try to use the toilet before or after the performance, so that I don't miss out on anything exciting.

WHO WILL I SEE, AND WHO CAN HELP ME?

If I need help, I can ask a Sydney Opera House Front of House Staff Member who be working throughout the performance. They will be able to provide me with information and help with first aid.

I can identify them by their white button up shirt, black blazer with a silver streak on left hand side of the collar with a Sydney Opera House name badge. They may also be in an orange polo shirt with black pants and a name badge.

QUIET SPACES SUNFLOWER AND HIDDEN DISABILITIES LANYARD

I can exit the performance at any point if I need to.

Hidden Disabilities Sunflower Lanyard

The Sunflower is a globally recognised symbol for Hidden Disabilities.

- The lanyard is a way that people with Hidden Disabilities can indicate to staff that they may need extra support, time and understanding.
- If I have a Sunflower lanyard I can bring it with me, and the Front of House Staff are trained to recognise it.
- It is OK if I don't have a lanyard, I can still get help if I need.

THANK YOU FOR VISITING
